Violent Earthquakes Shake Southern France

MARSEILLES, June 11.—Two violent earthquakes have occurred in Southern France. Warships were shaken loose from their moorings in the harbor of Toulon. Houses collapsed at Lambesc and eight people were killed. Troops were rushed to the scene.

SENATOR PAU RECALLED.
CARACAS, June 11.—The arrival of United States warships at La Guayra at the request of Senator Paul, special envoy to Europe, caused an uproar in Congress. Heated speeches were made and the affair resulted in Paul's recall.

IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES INVESTIGATE.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The immigration authorities will investigate the destination of two hundred Spaniards and Porto Ricans who have arrived here from Hawaii. They allege that they were lured there by false promises and were made to work fourteen hours per day.

COALITION MOVE IS MADE.
WASHINGTON, June 10.—A move has been made in the Senate to form a coalition of progressive Republicans and Democrats to pass an income tax bill. It is proposed to reduce the scale from two to three cents on the hundred.

WOODRUFF'S CHANCES ARE GOOD.
WASHINGTON, June 10.—Strong cablegrams from Governor Peary and the Civic Federation have greatly improved Mr. Woodruff's chances of getting the second Federal Judgeship in Hawaii.

DR. WU AT PANAMA.
PANAMA, June 11.—Dr. Wu Ting Fang has arrived here en route to Peru. He will inspect the canal before leaving.

PROSECUTION RESTS CASE.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—The prosecution in the graft cases has closed.

ities had accomplished their purpose, which was to keep the prisoners locked up until the Grand Jury could meet and return indictments against them. Incidentally, Makino's plans to go to Waipahu Thursday night to make another speech and endeavor to brace up the strikers and put a stop to the prospective break in the strike were sadly interfered with. He did not find it profitable to make speeches to himself in a lonesome cell.

The officers of the law claim that they had plenty of evidence upon which to arrest Makino and his associates, but they have a good deal more now, and think look black for the men who have been disturbing the peace and quietude of the Territory.

Editor Soga of the Nippon Jiji was the next. He was just getting out his paper, and when he was informed that the associate editors, pressmen and other employees of his office were also wanted, he begged that they be not disturbed until after the paper was off the press. This request was granted and some of the employees were not arrested until about 5:40 that afternoon.

Meantime, Makino, Negoro and Soga were hurried to the police station, where orders were given that they be locked up in separate cells where they could not communicate with one another. This was done, and later the other prisoners from the Jiji were also taken to the jail and given quarters there.

As soon as he heard of the steps that had been taken by the High Sheriff and his deputies, Attorney Lightfoot, who has all along represented the strikers, got busy. No charges had been placed against the prisoners, they being merely held for investigation. Lightfoot claimed that this was in violation of their rights and privileges, and he promptly began to make strenuous efforts to get them released on writs of habeas corpus. Within less than 40 minutes after Makino and his fellow conspirators were behind the bars, Lightfoot appeared before Judge De Bolt with a petition for the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus. The writ was issued, but was made returnable to Judge Robinson, the High Sheriff being ordered to produce in court the bodies of his prisoners at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. This meant that Makino, Negoro, Soga and the others under arrest must spend the night in jail.

The first writ was found to be invalid and a new one was issued. Over this the lawyers debated all day yesterday. Lightfoot being opposed to Attorney General Hemenway and the special prosecuting firm of Kinney, Ballou, Prosser and Anderson. The filed a motion to quash the writ, and when night came the lawyers were still arguing over that and had not finished. This gave Makino et al a chance to spend another night in jail, the argument going over until this morning. This meant that the author-
